November 2, 2018 | 10 am HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ONLY Interview with a Mexican

Wells Fargo Auditorium

Based on conversations with Gustavo Arellano, columnist and author of Ask a Mexican and Taco USA, and adapted for the stage by Anthony J. Garcia, this show is a carnival of conversations and random perspectives about what it means to be a Mexican, inside or outside the US.

December 14, 2018 | 10:15 am The Nutcracker Ballet in the Land of Enchantment

Albuquerque Journal Theatre

TICKET PRICE: $4

This beloved holiday classic comes to life in the late 1800s in territorial New Mexico, with many surprises including Spanish and flamenco dancers, dancing southwestern snakes, sheep and shepherdesses, hummingbirds, a lively fandango, and a storyteller doll with children. Traditional favorites such as the Sugar Plum Fairy, Snowflakes, and Flowers are also preserved in all their splendor.

Please call Festival Ballet Albuquerque for tickets at 505-296-9465 or email festivalballetabq@gmail.com

February 15, 2019 | 10 am The Real James Bond Was... Dominican!

HIGH SCHOOL ONLY

Wells Fargo Auditorium

What happens when a Dominican boy in Queens—with an imagination far beyond his shell, who won't go anywhere without his nerf gun and is obsessed with James Bond—finds out that the real James Bond was Dominican? Qué, Qué? Yeah! The Real James Bond Was... Dominican! is a true story, not the one you've read in books and seen in the movies, about Porfirio Rubirosa, Ian Fleming's inspiration for Bond—and how this discovery set off a whole tragi-comic journey for a young, Dominican actor-to-be. The Real James Bond Was Dominican is a young man's guide to love, sex, color, code-switching, white-washing, success, fake-it-till-you-make-it, and the roller coaster of finding one's true self. An original work created by DNA Works Daniel Banks, Christopher Rivas and guest artists.

March 1, 2019 | 10 am Carnaval Celebration

Albuquerque Journal Theatre

The NHCC's annual celebration of Carnaval is a dazzling spectacle of vibrant dance, engaging music, and beautiful costumes, featuring the band PANDemonium and the Odara Dance Ensemble and showcasing the Carnaval celebrations of Cuba, Trinidad, Brazil and New Orleans.
